1. [redacted] stated that there are no pre-Communist broadcasting stations in Cuba. There are, however, many radio station owners who have accepted, and possibly may again accept Communist announcements and propaganda, but this should not be construed to mean that the station is pre-Communist.

2. [redacted] there definitely are no clandestine broadcasting stations in Cuba. [redacted] has commented, however, that the Cuban Government is not in possession of the equipment and personnel needed to make a reliable investigation of the matter. Since previous reports have indicated that clandestine stations may exist, there is at this time no reason to accept the definite negative reply of the above-mentioned Cuban officials.
